Nomination for BOPRU Ball Boy for Steamers Pre-season and ITM NPC Games 2010

Ball Boys will be selected for their maturity, commitment to the game & trainings, respect always shown towards coaches/referees/supporters and a fair & sportsmanlike attitude.

These boys/girls display 'a lead from the front' attitude to their playing environment, whilst not necessarily being the best player. They don't shirk the tough stuff, give it their all & yet present graciousness should things not go their way.

Their commitment to self development in their sporting endeavours is without question.

They are grateful young men/women for the opportunities that have come their way so far & will attempt go far in whatever path they choose in their sporting & life direction.

Should you wish to nominate a Player to be part of this very select group, we need a commitment from the families that they can get their son/daughter to ALL the games, including pre-season, barring sickness. Attendance would be expected at every game, ON TIME; freezing cold nights, rain and hail unfortunately! and of course shine.
